

Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) Essentials

Who it's for:

The course is suitable for experienced primary and secondary school teachers; either language teachers supporting subject teachers or subject teachers working in a CLIL context.

Details:

If you are teaching school subjects in English, then this course will provide comprehensive training on the methodology and practice of CLIL you need in your work.

Duration:

55 hours over 12 weeks

Part of: Stages 3, 4 and 5 of the CPD framework

Level of English required: B1+

Further information:

The course consists of 20 units, each taking approximately 2.5 hours. The units are divided into 2 modules:

- Module 1 – Knowledge and principles of CLIL (6 units)
- Module 2 – Lesson preparation, lesson delivery and assessment (14 units)

Teachers learn to use model language, evaluate language challenges in the classroom, develop enquiry-based learning and improve assessment methods and feedback. Practical examples throughout the course reflect a range of subjects and age groups. The topics for the workshops cover those in the University of Cambridge TKT CLIL examination. Participants completing this course may wish to take this examination but it is not necessary.

Assessment

Final assessment on the course consists of one 500-word essay and one lesson plan with rationale. Participants receive a final grade of excellent/successful/unsuccessful.

Certificate

Participants successfully completing the course will receive a certificate.
